

International Conference on Developmental Trauma & Dissociation 2018

23-24 June 2018 | 9:00 AM - 4:45PM
The Chester Grosvenor Hotel, UK

You are invited to join us at the International Conference on Developmental Trauma and Dissociation 2018, co-hosted by CTC Psychological Services & the International Society for the Study of Trauma and Dissociation (ISSTD), at the luxurious Grosvenor Hotel and Spa in the heart of the beautiful and historic city of Chester.

2018 sees both the 30th year anniversary of CTC Psychological Services and the 35th anniversary of ISSTD, and to celebrate, we are presenting a two-day conference featuring keynote speakers: Richard Chefetz, Martin Dorahy, Ruth Lanius and Joyanna Silberg.

Of key focus will be the work CTC undertakes as an Adoption Support Agency with adopted children and their families. Highlighting the impact of trauma on cognitive and emotional development, as well as on the body, presentations will offer a variety of therapeutic approaches to both the impact and remedy of unresolved Developmental Trauma.

As well as plenary talks by the leading experts (more to be announced), the conference will feature two full days of parallel sessions (papers and workshops.)
