

Organizational Membership

The ISSTD is the world's premiere international trauma society. In an effort to continue to provide excellent training and resources, ISSTD is pleased to announce the creation of the Organizational Membership Category. The Organizational Membership provides the opportunity for facilities and organizations to combine a number of benefits, including individual memberships for a number of employees. There are four different membership types, which are outlined below. In addition, Organizational Membership prices are adjusted for different organization types:

For Profit Organizations

- Base: $1,000
