ABOUT ISSTD

The International Society for the Study of Trauma and Dissociation was formed in the early 1980’s and is the oldest international society to represent the interest of clinicians and researchers working with complex trauma and dissociative disorders. It is a non-profit, professional association, organized to develop and promote comprehensive, clinically effective and empirically based resources and responses to trauma and dissociation.

Why support or exhibit with ISSTD?
Our members and conference attendees represent the leading professionals in the world of complex trauma and dissociation. Our conferences allow for organizations to network with and promote your organization to attendees who have traveled from around the globe to be present.

As a supporter or exhibitor, you will have the unique opportunity to tap into this esteemed network of professionals. Don’t miss out on this limited opportunity to connect one on one with psychologists, social workers, counselors and other mental health professionals who use and promote the products and services you have to offer!

VIRTUAL ADVERTISING

In 2018, ISSTD launched ISSTDWorld, our online community platform which includes discussion boards and a resource library for members, access to member-only benefits, an expanded Find-a-Therapist database and list of upcoming events. Advertising opportunities are available on the homepage which is accessible to the general public as well as on interior pages which are accessed by members only.

Introduced in 2019, our Conference App is a great way to get your company or organization front and center with conference attendees. Our conference app is home to our online schedule, speaker and presentation information, certificate program, and much more!
